

Ambassadors of Love

We live in the kingdom of this world, a kingdom ruled by forces opposed to God. Yet, we do not belong to the kingdom of this world. We are citizens of the Kingdom of God. Paul tells us we live in this world as ambassadors bearing witness to our King and the Kingdom of our citizenship. Our marriages need to reflect our citizenship, to bear witness to the values and life of our Homeland, the Kingdom of God. This couple's retreat will revive your marriage based on the principles of our Homeland. You will have the opportunity to revisit and reestablish the values that reveal God to your spouse and all who observe your marriage. Through teaching, interaction, and fun you will learn what it means to become an ambassador of heaven in your marriage—a reflection of God's kingdom, the kingdom where you hold citizenship and the homeland to which you will one day return.

Ambassadors of Love

Reflecting the Kingdom of God in Your Marriage

Presented at Camp Christian with:
John Salmon, PHD
Alicia Salmon, LCSW

February 10-12, 2017

Sessions Include:

Session 1: Ambassadors of Heaven

Christians live as aliens in this world. Our homeland is heaven; our citizenship the Kingdom of God. Our lives and our marriages reflect the ideals of God's kingdom, not the world's kingdom. Paul explains what it means to become ambassadors of our homeland in 2 Corinthians 5:13-20. This session provides helps us apply these principles to our marriages, making them a reflection of the Kingdom of God in the world.

Session 2: Ambassadors of Service

Janet Jackson once asked her lover, "What have you don't for me lately?" For ambassadors of God's kingdom, this is the wrong question. It does not reflect the values of our homeland or our King. Our King prioritizes service and asks, "What can I do for you today?" This session explores what our King says about service and practical ways we can implement service in our marriages.

Session 3: Ambassadors of Love & Acceptance

The Kingdom of God, our homeland, is marked by love and acceptance. Our King reveals this value by accepting us and calling us to "accept one another as Christ accepted you." This session will look more closely at acceptance in marriage while enjoying fun fellowship with one another.

Session 4: Ambassadors of Purpose

Being ambassadors of the Kingdom of God gives us purpose...not just as individuals, but as a couple. Discovering God's unique purpose for your marriage will solidify and strengthen it. This session is designed to give you the opportunity and tools to explore God's purpose for your marriage.

Session 5: Ambassadors of Worship

Worship is one of the most significant ways to reflect our homeland and our King. Our marriages offer us an amazing opportunity to worship our Father in three unique ways. In so doing, we become ambassadors of worship in and through our marriages in a world that desperately needs to learn to worship our Father.

Once again, the couple's retreat, Ambassadors of Love, will take place at Camp Christian, February 10-12, 2017.

Cost: listed @ camp-christian.org

Space is limited to 15 couples, so be sure to register early @ camp-christian.org

To learn more about John & Alicia Salmon, visit our website at www.honorgracecelebrate.com